This is the most appreciated, needed and important activity. The ponds proposed for renovation are silted, broken and unable to impound the surface flows during rainy season. Water gets contaminated due to disposal of sewage water in to these ponds. People use this water at the time of Kharif sowing for irrigation and these ponds are very useful in irrigating about 50 to 100 ha. lands at the critical stage of water scarcity. After renovation of these ponds people have decided to collect some water charges and maintain them in futures.
